The Post: Programmer Analyst, East Anglia (Ely, Cambridgeshire). Full Time Post. Competitive salary.

Job Description

This is a great opportunity for the right candidate to work with a leading CRM application in daily use by a wide range of leading brand names.

Overview

Are you able to analyse large datasets quickly and efficiently, to manipulate data and provide meaningful reports? Then we would love to hear from you. This role will require excellent data processing skills, as well as intimate knowledge of our .NET application. You will be given a great deal of support and training, but we will expect you to be highly skilled in data manipulation; ideally in SQL, VB, C# and .Net. Experience of CRM systems will be a distinct advantage and familiarity of web services to exchange data with data providers will be useful.

Responsibilities

- To develop modules in response to client requests
- To provide proactive and reactive support to clients using your modules and our CRM application
- To contribute to new clients builds where appropriate

Skills & Experience

We would expect you to have several years experience of SQL and .Net framework working in VB or ideally C#. You will have education to at least A level standard and a thorough foundation in Microsoft Windows and Microsoft IIS. Experience of marketing applications or support desk service would be a distinct advantage.

Company Description

Wyvern DM is a leading provider of CRM software and marketing services. Wyvern has major B2B and consumer clients using our software and services to drive their marketing. We are constantly on a mission to deliver real insight and measurable results by the use of clear thinking and clever software.

This is a unique and exciting opportunity to join a small but highly vibrant company delivering top drawer services to leading brand name clients. We offer a vibrant and friendly team environment where you will be working at the cutting edge of marketing with an innovative product in our Ely offices.
